

TODAY MAY DECIDE FATE OF TREATY

Compromise on Article X and Monroe Doctrine Hoped for at Conference

DEBATE ON FLOOR IS FEARED

Washington, Jan. 30.—The fate of future private negotiations between Democratic and Republican leaders to effect a compromise on peace treaty reservations rests in a large measure on the outcome of today's session of the bipartisan conference postponed until today by the absence of Senator Lenroot, Wisconsin, one of the Republican conferees.

The principals of the conference were understood to be well fortified with compromise proposals and a vigorous effort to overcome objections to the reservations regarding Article X and the Monroe Doctrine was expected. These are the only remaining obstacles to the formation of a united program designed to clear the treaty out of the Senate.

Opposition to bringing the treaty before more into the open Senate is based, fundamentally, senators said, upon political considerations. The first objection is that it means adopting the Senate's legislative machinery at a time when all possible speed consistent with safety is demanded if the essentials of a big legislative program are to be taken care of in time to permit a recess next June for the national conventions of the two parties. These essentials include fourteen appropriation bills, which, in addition to being needed to keep the government departments running, are held to be politically indispensable.

MORGAN'S GRANDSON REPORTED MARRIED

19-Year-Old Laurens Hamilton Said to Have Wed Woman Past Thirty

New York, Jan. 30.—Society was interested yesterday in a published report of a wedding, in which the principals were said to be Laurens M. Hamilton, nineteen years old, grandson of the late J. P. Morgan, and great-grandson of Alexander Hamilton, and Mrs. Gregory Warren, reported to be in the early thirties.

Friends of young Hamilton, when they heard yesterday of the romance, were not sure that the couple had selected New Hampshire because it is the only state in which the marriage of a minor is sanctioned.

No one professed even to know where Hamilton met his bride. She is known to have spent a week at the Hotel Ritz-Carlton. She left there on January 20—last Monday—and the marriage is presumed to have taken place some time since that date.

MARTENS PROMISES TROTSKY LETTERS

Will Produce All Communications Between Bolshevik Government and Himself

Washington, Jan. 30.—An offer to present to the Senate committee investigating Bolshevik propaganda in the United States "true copies" of all communications between himself and the Russian Soviet Government was made today by Ludwig C. A. K. Martens, Bolshevik representative in this country.

Former Senator Hardwick, of Georgia, Martens' attorney, said, however, that it was desired that some of the letters be considered in executive session as they might "involve others, far beyond the war, in trouble." He explained that he referred to those who assisted in maintaining the communication between the self-styled ambassador and the Soviet chief in Russia, Chairman Hoover reserved decision as to an executive session.
